

Police Supervisor Legal Liability

Legal Liability: This one-day course will provide police supervisors at all levels and rank with an overview of the legal liability they face as supervisors. The course will cover Michigan law and Federal law and legal theories used against police supervisors and their agencies. Concepts such as gross negligence, intentional torts, deliberate indifference, duty to intervene, and 42 USC Sec. 1983 will be covered, among many others. In addition to covering the legal framework that is essential to understanding this liability, the course will also offer practical techniques and tips that supervisors can utilize to help minimize their own risk, and the risks against their respective agencies. Course is also useful and appropriate for patrol officers/detectives wanting to learn more about liability.

Cost: $299.00. Course is MCOLES registered for use of 302 funds.

We will invoice your agency following registration.

Instructor: The course is instructed by the law firm of Keith A Wuotinen, PLC. Keith Wuotinen, Esq. has been employed in law enforcement for over 27 years (ret. Lieutenant) as well as being an attorney for over 23-years, admitted to the State Bar of Michigan and the Eastern District of Michigan Federal Court. The dual careers of Michigan law enforcement and a Michigan attorney makes him uniquely qualified to present a police supervisor legal liability course in a manner that is most beneficial to police supervisors at all levels.
